BLESSING AND ERECTING STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Formerly Reserved to the Order of Friars Minor

The priest who has this faculty vests in surplice and purple stole. He should be assisted by at least one cleric, who at the times designated hands him the aspersory and the thurible. First the priest goes up to the altar predella and addresses the people briefly on the excellence and value of the devotion of the Way of the Cross. After this he kneels on the lowest step of the altar and intones the Veni, Creator Spiritus, which is continued by the choir:

Hymn

Creator-spirit, all-divine,
Come, visit every soul of Thine,
And fill with Thy celestial flame
The hearts which Thou Thyself didst flame.

O gift of God, Thine is the sweet
Consoling name of Paraclete-
And spring of life and fire and love
And unction flowing from above.

The mystic sevenfold gifts are Thine,
Finger of God's right hand divine;
The Father's promise sent to teach
The tongue a rich and heavenly speech.

Kindle with fire brought from above
Each sense, and fill our hearts with love;
And grant our flesh, so weak and frail,
The strength of Thine which cannot fail.

Drive far away our deadly foe,
And grant us Thy true peace to know;
So we, led by Thy guidance still,
May safely pass through every ill.

To us, through Thee, the grace be shown
To know the Father and the Son;
And Spirit of Them both, may we
Forever rest our faith in Thee.

To Sire and Son be praises meet,
And to the Holy Paraclete;
And may Christ send us from above
That Holy Spirit's gift of love. Amen.

When the hymn is finished he says:

V. Send forth your Spirit and all things shall be recreated.

R. And you shall renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray.

Prayer

God, who instructed the hearts of the faithful by the light of the Holy Spirit, guide us by your Spirit to desire only what is good and so always to find joy in His comfort.

Lord, we beg you to protect this people from every adversity, by the intercession of blessed Mary, ever a Virgin; and as they bow down fervently before you shield them by your benevolence from all wiles of the enemy.

We beg you, Lord, let a breath of your grace prompt our undertakings and guide them along their course, so that our least prayer and work may begin in you and end in you; through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Then if the paintings or images of the stations are right at hand (and not already hung in their place) the priest blesses them as follows:

V. Our help is in the name of the Lord.

R. Who made heaven and earth.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Prayer

Almighty everlasting God, who do not forbid us to carve or paint likenesses of your saints, in order that whenever we look at them with our bodily eyes we may call to mind their holy lives, and resolve to follow in their footsteps; may it please you to bless + and to hallow + these images, which have been made in memory and honor of your only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. And grant that all who in their presence pay devout homage to your only-begotten Son may by His merits and primacy obtain your grace in this life and everlasting glory in the life to come; through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

The priest sprinkles them with holy water and incenses them. In a private oratory the incensation may be omitted.

Next the priest blesses the fourteen crosses which must be made of wood.

V. Our help is in the name of the Lord.

R. Who made heaven and earth.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Prayer

Holy Lord, almighty Father, everlasting God, we beg that it may please you to bless + these crosses, so that they may be saving helps to mankind. Let them be the support of faith, an encouragement to good works, the redemption of souls; and let them be consolation, protection, and shields against the cruel darts of the enemy; through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Let us pray.

Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, bless + these crosses, for by your holy cross you snatched the world from Satan's grasp, and overcame by your suffering the tempter to sin, who rejoiced in the first man's fall in eating of the forbidden tree. R. Amen.

Then the priest sprinkles them with holy water, saying:

May these crosses be hallowed, in the name of the Father, + and of the Son, + and of the Holy + Spirit; so that all who kneel in prayer before these crosses in our Lord's honor may have health in body and soul; through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

If there is a procession the following hymns are sung:

Hymn

1. Abroad the regal banners fly,

Now shines the cross's mystery;

Upon it Life did death endure,

And yet by death did life procure.

2. Who, wounded with a direful spear,

Did, purposely to wash us clear

From stain of sin, pour out a flood

Of precious water mixed with blood.

3. That which the prophet-king of old

Has in mysterious verse foretold,

Is now accomplished, while we see

God ruling nations from a tree.

4. O lovely and resplendent tree,

Adorned with purpled majesty;

Culled from a worthy stock to bear

Those limbs which sanctified were.

5. Blest tree, whose happy branches bore

The wealth that did the world restore;

The beam that did that body weigh

Which raised up hell's expected prey.

6. Hail, cross, of hopes the most sublime!

Now in this mournful passion time, *

Improve religious souls in grace.

The sins of criminals efface.

7. Blest Trinity, salvation's spring,

May every soul your praises sing;

To those you grant a conquest by

The holy cross, rewards apply. Amen.

* Outside of passiontime this line reads: Now in your glorious reign in time. In paschaltime it reads: Which bears the joys of paschaltime.

Hymn

1. At the cross her station keeping,

Stood the mournful Mother weeping,

Close to Jesus to the last.

2. Through her heart, His sorrows sharing,

All His bitter anguish bearing,

Now at length the sword had passed.

3. Oh, how sad and sore distressed

Was that Mother highly blest

Of the sole-begotten One.

4. Christ above in torment hangs;

She beneath beholds the pangs

Of her dying glorious Son.

5. Is there one who would not weep,

Whelmed in miseries so deep

Christ's dear Mother to behold?

6. Can the human heart refrain

From partaking in her pain,

In that Mother's pain untold?

7. Bruised, derided, cursed, defiled,

She beheld her tender child

All with bloody scourges rent.

8. For the sins of His own nation,

Saw Him hang in desolation,

Till his spirit forth He sent.

9. O you Mother, fount of love!

Touch my spirit from above,

Make my heart with yours accord.

10. Make me feel as you have felt,

Make my soul to glow and melt

With the love of Christ my Lord. Amen.

V. We adore you, Christ, and we bless you.

R. For by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Let us pray.

Prayer

God, who by the illustrious suffering of your Son taught us to arrive at everlasting glory by the way of the cross, grant that we, who devoutly unite ourselves with Him on Calvary, may reign triumphantly with Him in glory. We ask this of Him who lives and reigns with you forever and ever. R. Amen.

The priest goes to the place of the first station, where he kisses the cross and then hangs it in place, either himself or with the help of a layman who is properly clothed for this service. He then reads the meditation and prayers proper to this station; and the same is done at the other stations. After this the Te Deum is sung, along with its versicles and oration.

Hymn

We praise thee, O God: * we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.

All the earth doth worship thee, * the Father everlasting.

To thee all the Angels cry aloud, * the Heavens and all the Powers therein:

To thee the Cherubim and Seraphim * continually do cry.

Holy, Holy, Holy * Lord God of Hosts.

Heaven and earth are full * of the majesty of thy glory.
The glorious choir * of the Apostles praise thee.
The admirable company of the Prophets * praise thee.
The white-robed army of Martyrs * praise thee.
The holy Church throughout the world * doth acknowledge thee,
The Father * of infinite majesty,
Thy adorable, true, * and only Son,
And the Holy Spirit * the Comforter.
Thou art the King of glory, * O Christ.
Thou art the everlasting Son * of the Father.
Thou, when thou wouldest take human nature to deliver man, * didst not disdain the Virgin's womb.
When thou hadst overcome the sting of death, * thou didst open to believers the kingdom of heaven.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God, * in the glory of the Father.
We believe that thou shalt come * to be our Judge.
We beseech thee, therefore, help thy servants, * whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious Blood.
Make them to be numbered with thy Saints * in glory everlasting.
O Lord, save thy people, * and bless thine inheritance.
Govern them, * and exalt them forever.
Day by day * we bless thee;
And we praise thy name forever, * yea, forever and ever.
Vouchsafe, O Lord, this day * to keep us without sin.
Have mercy upon us, O Lord, * have mercy upon us.
Let thy mercy be upon us, O Lord, * as we have hoped in thee.
O Lord, in thee have I hoped, * let me not be confounded forever.

V. Let us bless the Father and the Son, together with the Holy Spirit.

R. Let us praise Him and mightily extol Him forever.

Let us pray. Prayer

O God, Whose mercy is without limits and Whose goodness is a boundless treasury! We thank thy loving Sublimity for bountiful favors, and perseveringly appeal to thy clemency. Desert us not, thou Who hearest thy suppliants, but speed us to final victory. Through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Lastly the priest blesses the people with a crucifix.

The fastening of the stations to the walls may be done privately by anyone and without ceremony, either before or after the blessing by the priest.

Following is an example of the formal testimonial that the stations of the cross were erected in a given place:

By virtue of the faculty granted me, I, N. N. erected the Way of the Cross with its annexed indulgences in the place named above in the delegation, in accord with the rules prescribed by the Congregation of Sacred Indulgences on May 10, 1742. In testimony of which I have affixed my signature on this day, etc.

Oramus.

Oratio

Deus, cuius misericordiae non est numerus et bonitatis infinitus est thesaurus: piissimae majestati tuae pro collatis donis gratias agimus, tuam semper clementiam exorantes; ut, qui petentibus postulata concedis, eosdem non deserens, ad praemia futura disponas. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. R. Amen.

Demum Sacerdos genuflexus ter invocet patrocinium dolorosae Matris dicens:

Virgo dolorosissima, ora pro nobis, populo idem respondente; postea ascendit altare, et conversus ad populum, illum benedicit, dicens:

Nos cum prole pia, benedicit dolorosa Virgo Maria.

BLESSING AND ERECTING STATIONS OF THE SORROWFUL MOTHER
IN HONOR OF OUR LADY OF THE SEVEN DOLORS
Formerly reserved to the Order of Servites

(Approved by the Congregation of Sacred Rites, March 10, 1883)

The priest vests in surplice and purple stole. He should be assisted by clerics or other ministrants, who hold the aspersory, thurible and incense boat. First the priest goes up to the altar predella and addresses the people briefly on the excellence and value of this devotion of the Stations of the Sorrowful Mother. After this he kneels on the lowest step of the altar and intones the Veni, Creator Spiritus, which is continued by the choir.

Hymn

Creator-spirit, all-divine,
Come, visit every soul of Thine,
And fill with Thy celestial flame
The hearts which Thou Thyself didst flame.
O gift of God, Thine is the sweet
Consoling name of Paraclete-
And spring of life and fire and love

And unction flowing from above.
The mystic sevenfold gifts are Thine,
Finger of God's right hand divine;
The Father's promise sent to teach
The tongue a rich and heavenly speech.
Kindle with fire brought from above
Each sense, and fill our hearts with love;
And grant our flesh, so weak and frail,
The strength of Thine which cannot fail.
Drive far away our deadly foe,
And grant us Thy true peace to know;
So we, led by Thy guidance still,
May safely pass through every ill.
To us, through Thee, the grace be shown
To know the Father and the Son;
And Spirit of Them both, may we
Forever rest our faith in Thee.
To Sire and Son be praises meet,
And to the Holy Paraclete;
And may Christ send us from above
That Holy Spirit's gift of love. Amen.

When the hymn is finished he says:

V. Send forth your Spirit and all things shall be recreated.

R. And you shall renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray.

Prayer

God, who instructed the hearts of the faithful by the light of the Holy Spirit, guide us by your Spirit to desire only what is good and so always to find joy in His comfort.

Lord, we beg you to protect this people from every adversity, by the intercession of blessed Mary, ever a Virgin; and as they fervently bow down before you shield them by your benevolence from all wiles of the enemy.

We beg you, Lord, let a breath of your grace prompt our undertakings and guide them along their course, so that our least prayer and work may ever begin in you and end in you; through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Then the priest blesses the paintings or images of the stations:

V. Our help is in the name of the Lord.

R. Who made heaven and earth.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Prayer

Almighty everlasting God, who do not forbid us to carve or paint likenesses of your saints, in order that whenever we look at them with our bodily eyes we may call to mind their holy lives, and resolve to follow in their footsteps; may it please you to bless + and to hallow + these images, which have been made in memory and honor of the Sorrowful Virgin and Mother of God. And grant that all who in their presence pay devout homage to the sorrows which the blessed Virgin Mary endured throughout the life, suffering, and death of her only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, may by her merits and pleading obtain your grace in this life and everlasting glory in the life to come; through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

The priest puts incense into the thurible and blesses it. And taking the aspersory he sprinkles the images with holy water, saying:

Purify me with hyssop, Lord, and I shall be clean of sin. Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Then taking the thurible he incenses them without saying anything. In a private oratory the incensation may be omitted.

After the blessing of the images the priest, accompanied by the clergy, goes in procession to the place where the first station is to be erected. The procession is led by the cross-bearer (who walks between two acolytes carrying lighted candles). The priest kisses the first image and then hangs it in place, either himself or with the help of another cleric. He then reads the meditation and prayers proper to this station; and the same is done at the other stations. After this he proceeds to the shrine or the image of the Sorrowful Mother, during which time the Stabat Mater is sung.

Hymn

At the cross her station keeping,
Stood the mournful Mother weeping,
Close to Jesus to the last.

Through her heart, His sorrows sharing,
All His bitter anguish bearing,
Now at length the sword had passed.

Oh, how sad and sore distressed
Was that Mother highly blest
Of the sole-begotten One.

Christ above in torment hangs;
She beneath beholds the pangs
Of her dying glorious Son.

Is there one who would not weep,
Whelmed in miseries so deep
Christ's dear Mother to behold?

Can the human heart refrain
From partaking in her pain,
In that Mother's pain untold?

Bruised, derided, cursed, defiled,
She beheld her tender child
All with bloody scourges rent.

For the sins of His own nation,
Saw Him hang in desolation,
Till his spirit forth He sent.

O you Mother, fount of love!
Touch my spirit from above,
Make my heart with yours accord.
Make me feel as you have felt,
Make my soul to glow and melt
With the love of Christ my Lord. Amen.

At the shrine the priest says:

V. Pray for us, O Virgin of many sorrows.
R. That we may be worthy of Christ's promise.

Let us pray. Prayer

O God, during whose passion, as Simeon had foretold, a sword of sorrow pierced the tender heart of the glorious Virgin and Mother Mary; mercifully grant that we who meditate on her sufferings may attain the blessed effect of your passion. We ask this of you who live and reign forever and ever. R. Amen.

Next the Te Deum is sung, along with its versicles and oration.

We praise thee, O God: * we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.
All the earth doth worship thee, * the Father everlasting.
To thee all the Angels cry aloud, * the Heavens and all the Powers therein:
To thee the Cherubim and Seraphim * continually do cry.
Holy, Holy, Holy * Lord God of Hosts.
Heaven and earth are full * of the majesty of thy glory.
The glorious choir * of the Apostles praise thee.
The admirable company of the Prophets * praise thee.
The white-robed army of Martyrs * praise thee.
The holy Church throughout the world * doth acknowledge thee,
The Father * of infinite majesty,
Thy adorable, true, * and only Son,
And the Holy Spirit * the Comforter.
Thou art the King of glory, * O Christ.
Thou art the everlasting Son * of the Father.
Thou, when thou wouldest take human nature to deliver man, * didst not disdain the Virgin's womb.
When thou hadst overcome the sting of death, * thou didst open to believers the kingdom of heaven.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God, * in the glory of the Father.
We believe that thou shalt come * to be our Judge.
We beseech thee, therefore, help thy servants, * whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious Blood.
Make them to be numbered with thy Saints * in glory everlasting.
O Lord, save thy people, * and bless thine inheritance.
Govern them, * and exalt them forever.
Day by day * we bless thee;
And we praise thy name forever, * yea, forever and ever.
Vouchsafe, O Lord, this day * to keep us without sin.

Have mercy upon us, O Lord, * have mercy upon us.

Let thy mercy be upon us, O Lord, * as we have hoped in thee.

O Lord, in thee have I hoped, * let me not be confounded forever.

V. Let us bless the Father and the Son, together with the Holy Spirit.

R. Let us praise Him and mightily extol Him forever.

Let us pray.

Prayer

O God, Whose mercy is without limits and Whose goodness is a boundless treasury! We thank thy loving Sublimity for bountiful favors, and perseveringly appeal to thy clemency. Desert us not, thou Who hearest thy suppliants, but speed us to final victory. Through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Then the priest kneels and invokes the help of the Sorrowful Mother, saying the following words three times:

V. Virgin, most sorrowful.

R. Pray for us.

Lastly the priest goes up to the altar predella, and turning toward the people blesses them with the words:

Together with her beloved Son, may Mary, Virgin most sorrowful, bless us.

BLESSING AND INVESTITURE WITH SCAPULAR OF BLESSED TRINITY

Formerly reserved to the Order of the Holy Trinity for the Ransoming of Captives

The one who is to receive the scapular is kneeling. The priest, vested in surplice and white stole, says:

Lord Jesus Christ, who condescended to clothe yourself in our mortal nature, we beg you in your boundless goodness to bless + this garment which our holy fathers have sanctioned for those who renounce the world, in token of the innocence and humility which should be theirs. May this servant of yours, who is to wear it, likewise put on you. We ask this of you who live and reign forever and ever. R. Amen.

He sprinkles the scapular with holy water; then continues:

Let us pray.

Prayer

Hear, Lord, our humble entreaties, and be pleased to bless + this servant of yours, whom we invest in your name with the religious garb of the Most Holy Trinity. May he (she), by your bounty, persevere in piety and deserve to attain everlasting life; through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Then he invests the person with the scapular, saying:

Take this garb of the Most Holy Trinity. May it help you to grow in faith, hope, and charity; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, + and of the Holy Spirit. R. Amen.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Prayer

Almighty everlasting God, who enable us, your servants, in our profession of the true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the three Persons in the eternal Godhead, and to adore their oneness of nature, their co-equal majesty; grant, we pray, that by steadfastness in that faith we may ever be guarded against all adversity.

God, whom it has pleased to found, through your saints John and Felix, the Order of the Most Holy Trinity for ransoming captives from the power of the Saracens; grant, we pray, that by their merits and intercession, and by your aid, this servant of yours may be delivered from the slavery of both body and soul; through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

May the Blessed Trinity add you to the number of the brothers and sisters of our confraternity. And although we are unworthy of admitting you, yet we fervently pray that the Most Holy Trinity may help you to lead a good life, and to persevere in your resolution. And as today brotherly love joins us in a spiritual bond here on earth, so may the divine goodness, in whom all love has its origin and its growth, be pleased to unite us with His faithful in heaven; through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Then he gives the blessing:

May the peace and blessing of almighty God, Father, Son, + Holy Spirit, come upon you and remain with you forever. R. Amen.

BLESSING AND INVESTITURE WITH THE BLACK SCAPULAR OF OUR LORD'S SACRED CROSS AND PASSION

Formerly reserved to the Congregation of Passionists

The one who is to receive the scapular is kneeling. The priest, vested in surplice and red stole, says:

V. Our help is in the name of the Lord.

R. Who made heaven and earth.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, who, in order to redeem the world, willed to be born of a woman, submit to circumcision, to be rejected by the Jews and betrayed by the traitor, Judas, with a kiss; to be bound in chains and led as an innocent Lamb to the slaughter; wantonly made a spectacle of in the presence of Annas and Caiphas, Pilate and Herod; accused by false witnesses; tormented with scourges and indignities; spat upon, crowned with thorns, struck with a reed, blindfolded, stripped of your garments, nailed to the cross, and pierced with a lance. O Lord, by these your sacred sufferings and by your holy cross and death, enlighten your servant's mind and inflame his (her) heart, so that, imbued with your tender charity, he (she) may ever shed tears of compunction, love you with all his (her) heart, and devote himself (herself) wholly to whatever pleases you. We ask this of you who live and reign with God the Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. R. Amen.

The foregoing prayers may be omitted at will. Then the priest says:

V. Our help is in the name of the Lord.

R. Who made heaven and earth.

V. Blessed be the name of the Lord.

R. Both now and forevermore.

V. Lord, heed my prayer.

R. And let my cry be heard by you.

Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, who condescended to clothe yourself in our mortal nature, we humbly beg you to bless + and to hallow + this garment, designed as a reminder of your sacred passion and death. May this servant of yours, who is to wear it, have a part in your suffering, and so deserve to attain the glory of heaven. We ask this of you who live and reign forever and ever. R. Amen.

Next the priest sprinkles the scapular with holy water, and then clothes the person with it, saying:

May the Lord clothe you as a new man, so that, wearing this insignia of a sorrowing penitent, you may keep your eyes fixed on Jesus who was crucified at the hands of wicked men, and mourn over Him with a grief befitting the death of God's firstborn Son. R. Amen.

The priest continues:

By the faculty granted me I make you a partaker of all the spiritual benefits which the Congregation of Passionists enjoys by privilege of the Holy See; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, + and of the Holy Spirit. R. Amen.

In conclusion he adds:

May the passion of our Lord Jesus Christ be ever in our hearts. Amen.

R. Who made heaven and earth.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, who condescended to clothe yourself in our mortal nature, and to despoil yourself, taking the form of a servant and becoming obedient, even to the death of the cross; we humbly beg you in your boundless goodness to bless + this garment, designed as a reminder of your bitter passion and of your Sacred Heart, as well as a reminder of the loving and compassionate heart of your immaculate Mother. May this servant of yours, who is to wear it, all the better meditate on these mysteries; and may he (she), by the merits and prayers of the blessed Virgin Mary, likewise put on you. We ask this of you who live and reign forever and ever. R. Amen.

Then the priest sprinkles the scapular with holy water, and invests the person with it, saying:

Take, dear brother (sister), this sacred garb, and divesting yourself of the old man, put on the new man. May you wear it with honor and thus attain everlasting life. R. Amen.

Then the priest continues:

By the faculty granted me I make you a partaker of all the spiritual benefits with which this holy scapular is endowed by privilege of the Holy See; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, + and of the Holy Spirit. R. Amen.

In conclusion the following versicle is said three times:

V. Our help is in the name of the Lord.

R. Who made heaven and earth.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Prayer

Almighty everlasting God, whom it pleased to lift up a fallen world by the death of your only-begotten Son, in order to deliver us from everlasting condemnation, and to lead us to the joys of the kingdom of heaven; we beg you to look with favor on this family of your servants, founded in the name of the blessed Virgin of the Seven Sorrows, of which family this servant of yours wishes to be a member. Let the number of those who faithfully serve you be increased. Let this candidate be delivered from all vexations of the world and of the flesh and of the snares of the devil; and by the prayers of the blessed Virgin Mary, of St. Augustine, of St. Philip, and of the seven holy fathers and founders of our Order, may he (she) attain the true joys that last forever; through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Turning to the scapular which lies on the altar the priest says:

Let us pray.

Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, who condescended to clothe yourself in our mortal nature, we humbly beg you in your boundless goodness to bless + this garment, which our holy fathers have sanctioned to be worn by us in token of innocence and lowliness, and in memory of the Seven Sorrows of the blessed Virgin Mary. May he (she), who is to wear it, likewise put on you, our Savior, in body and soul. We ask this of you who live and reign forever and ever. R. Amen.

He sprinkles the scapular with holy water, saying:

Purify me with hyssop, Lord, and I shall be clean of sin. Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Then he blesses the rosary of the Seven Sorrows, using the prayer "Almighty and merciful God" given below; and he sprinkles the rosary with holy water.

Let us pray.

Prayer

Almighty and merciful God, who, out of exceeding love for us, willed that your only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, come down on earth for our salvation, taking our flesh and submitting to the torment of the cross; we humbly beg you in your boundless goodness to bless + and to hallow + this rosary, which your faithful Church has consecrated to the memory of the Seven Sorrows of the Mother of your Son. After this he invests the person (who is kneeling before him) with the scapular, saying:

Take, dear brother (sister), this habit of the blessed Virgin Mary, the special badge of her servants, as a reminder of the Seven Sorrows she endured during the life and death of her only-begotten Son. And having been invested with it, may you by her patronage attain everlasting life. R. Amen.

Then he hands the rosary to the person, saying:

Take the rosary of the blessed Virgin Mary, designed to commemorate her Seven Sorrows. As your lips utter her praises, may your heart fully commiserate with her in her sufferings. R. Amen.

Lastly he blesses the person(s), saying:

May the blessing of almighty God, Father, Son, + and Holy Spirit, come upon you and remain with you forever. R. Amen.

The person who is to receive the scapular is kneeling. The priest vested in surplice and white stole, says:

Ant. O God, we ponder your kindness within your temple. * As your name, O God, so also your praise reaches to the ends of the earth. Your right hand is full of justice.

Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Our Father the rest inaudibly until

V. And lead us not into temptation.

R. But deliver us from evil.

V. Save your servant.

R. Who trusts in you, my God.

V. Lord, send him (her) aid from your holy place.

R. And watch over him (her) from Sion.

V. Let the enemy have no power over him (her).

R. And the son of iniquity be powerless to harm him (her).

V. Lord, heed my prayer.

R. And let my cry be heard by you.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray. Prayer

May Christ add you to the number of His faithful; and we, in spite of our unworthiness, include you in our prayers. May God, through His only-begotten Son, the Mediator of God and men, help you to live well, to do good, to persevere in your resolution, and to attain the inheritance of everlasting life. And as today brotherly love joins us in a spiritual bond here on earth, so may the divine goodness, in whom all love has its origin and its growth, be pleased to unite us with His faithful in heaven; through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

V. Our help is in the name of the Lord.

R. Who made heaven and earth.

V. Blessed be the name of the Lord.

R. Both now and forevermore.

V. Lord, Heed my prayer.

R. And let my cry be heard by you.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Prayer

Almighty God and everlasting Father, who willed that your only- begotten Son be clothed in our mortal nature, we humbly beg you in your boundless goodness to let your blessing + flow out on this garment, which our holy fathers have sanctioned to be worn by those who renounce the world, in token of innocence and lowliness. Let it please you to endow it with such blessing, + that he (she), who is to wear it, may likewise put on our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. R. Amen.

Let us pray.

Prayer

We earnestly beg you, O Lord, to let your gracious blessing + come on this garment, in which your servant is to be clothed. May it be blessed and endowed with your power to repel all vicious assaults of our visible and invisible enemies. R. Amen.

He sprinkles the habit with holy water.

¶ If only the habit is to be blessed, the blessing begins with the versicle Our help etc. and concludes with the aforementioned prayer "We earnestly beg you," etc.

As he invests the person with the habit he says:

Take, dear brother (sister), this blessed garment, and call on the most holy Virgin, that by her merits you may keep it spotless, be shielded by her from all adversity, and attain everlasting life. R. Amen.

Lord, hear our humble entreaties, and help this servant of yours, whom we enroll in the holy sodality of the Carmelites, to be ever constant and true to his (her) proposal, and to serve you in all holiness.

Protect your servant, Lord, with the saving grace of peace; and as he (she) confides himself (herself) to the patronage of blessed Mary, ever a Virgin, let him (her) be safe from all adversaries.

May almighty God, Maker of heaven and earth, bless + you, He who graciously chose you for the society and confraternity of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. We pray to her that in the hour of your death she will crush the head of your adversary, the serpent, so that you may finally and triumphantly possess the palm and crown of the everlasting inheritance; through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

He sprinkles the person with holy water; after which he adds:

By the delegated power which I enjoy, I receive you into the confraternity of the holy order of Carmelites, and enroll you as a partaker of all the spiritual benefits of this order; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, + and of the Holy Spirit. R. Amen.

At the end of the service the priest addresses a few but effectual words of admonition to the newly enrolled member, to the effect that he order his life wisely and piously, and fulfill all the obligations, both those laid down in general for all tertiaries, as well as the special ones for members who desire to enjoy the so-called "Sabbatine" privileges (concerning which he should fully enlighten the party); moreover, that in future he be assiduous in honoring the Virgin Mother of God with devotions of a special nature, and dedicate himself in filial and sincere affection to her whom he regards in a special way as a most tender Mother.

ANOTHER BLESSING AND INVESTITURE WITH

SCAPULAR OF OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL

Formerly reserved to the Order of Discalced Carmelites

The person who is to receive the scapular is kneeling. The priest, vested in surplice and white stole, says:

Antiphon: O God, we ponder.

Psalm 47

Great is the Lord, and exceedingly to be praised in the city of our God, in his holy mountain.

With the joy of the whole earth is mount Sion founded, on the sides of the north, the city of the great king.

In her houses shall God be known, when he shall protect her.

For behold the kings of the earth assembled themselves: they gathered together.

So they saw, and they wondered, they were troubled, they were moved: trembling took hold of them.

There were pains as of a woman in labour. With a vehement wind thou shalt break in pieces the ships of Tharsis.

As we have heard, so have we seen, in the city of the Lord of hosts, in the city of our God: God hath founded it for ever.

We have received thy mercy, O God, in the midst of thy temple.

According to thy name, O God, so also is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of justice.

Let mount Sion rejoice, and the daughters of Juda be glad; because of thy judgments, O Lord.

Surround Sion, and encompass her: tell ye in her towers.

Set your hearts on her strength; and distribute her houses, that ye may relate it in another generation.

For this is God, our God unto eternity, and for ever and ever: he shall rule us for evermore.

Glory be to the Father.

Psalm 132

Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity:

Like the precious ointment on the head, that ran down upon the beard, the beard of Aaron,

Which ran down to the skirt of his garment: as the dew of Hermon, which descendeth upon mount Sion.

For there the Lord hath commanded blessing, and life for evermore.

Glory be to the Father.

Ant. O God, we ponder your kindness within your temple. * As your name, O God, so also your praise reaches to the ends of the earth. Your right hand is full of justice.

Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Our Father the rest inaudibly until

V. And lead us not into temptation.

R. But deliver us from evil.

V. Save your servant.

R. Who trusts in you, my God.

V. Lord, send him (her) aid from your holy place.

R. And watch over him (her) from Sion.

V. Let the enemy have no power over him (her).

R. And the son of iniquity be powerless to harm him (her).

V. Lord, heed my prayer.

R. And let my cry be heard by you.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Prayer

May Christ add you to the number of His faithful; and we, in spite of our unworthiness, include you in our prayers. May God, through His only-begotten Son, the Mediator of God and men, help you to live well, to do good, to persevere in your resolution, and to attain the inheritance of everlasting life. And as today brotherly love joins us in a spiritual bond here on earth, so may the divine goodness, in whom all love has its origin and its growth, be pleased to unite us with His faithful in heaven; through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Let us pray.

Prayer

Hear, Lord, our humble entreaties, and be pleased to bless + this servant of yours, whom we receive in your holy name as a member and a partaker of all the spiritual benefits of this holy order, dedicated in a special way to the blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of your Son. May he (she), by your bounty, remain loyal to the Church and make progress in virtue. Assisted by the prayers of our holy order, may he (she) deserve to attain everlasting life. We ask this of you who live and reign forever and ever. R. Amen.

Then turning to the habit he says:

V. Lord, show us your mercy.

R. And grant us your salvation.

V. Lord God of hosts, let us turn to you.

R. Show us your countenance and we will be saved.

V. Lord, heed my prayer.

R. And let my cry be heard by you.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Prayer

We earnestly beg you, O Lord, to let your gracious blessing + come on this garment, in which your servant is to be clothed. May it be blessed and endowed with your power to repel all vicious assaults of our visible and invisible enemies. R. Amen.

Let us pray.

Prayer

God, head of all the faithful and Savior of the human race, sanctify + by your right hand this habit, which is to be worn by your servant in love and devotion to you and your blessed Mother, Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Under your constant guidance let its mystical significance be preserved both in the body and soul of him (her) who is to wear it; and may he (she) happily attain, along with all your saints, the everlasting reward. We ask this of you who live and reign forever and ever. R. Amen.

Let us pray.

Prayer

Creator, preserver, and Savior of all men; God, the generous provider of man's well-being and the giver of all spiritual goods; pour out your blessing + on this habit, so that he (she) who is to wear it, aided from on high, may be filled with true faith, firm hope, desired charity, and may never be separated from you. We ask this of you who live and reign forever and ever. R. Amen.

He sprinkles the habit with holy water, and invests the person with it, saying to each one:

Take, dear brother (sister), this blessed garment, and call on the most holy Virgin, that by her merits you may keep it spotless, be shielded by her from all adversity, and attain everlasting life. R. Amen.

Then he continues:

By the power delegated to me, I receive you and enroll you as a partaker of all the prayers, penances, suffrages, almsdeeds, fasts, vigils, Masses, canonical hours, as well as all other spiritual favors which, by the merciful help of Jesus Christ, are performed day and night in various places by the members of our whole order; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, + and of the Holy Spirit. R. Amen.

Then he blesses the new member with the sign of the cross, saying:

May almighty God, Maker of heaven and earth, bless + you, He who graciously chose you for the society and confraternity of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. We pray to her that in the hour of your death she will crush the head of your adversary, the serpent, so that you may finally and triumphantly possess the palm and crown of the everlasting inheritance; through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Lastly he sprinkles the person with holy water.

If several are being received, the plural forms are used.

If only the habit is to be blessed, the blessing begins with the versicle Lord, show us your mercy, and concludes with the prayer Creator, etc.

At the end of the service the priest addresses a few but effectual words of admonition to the newly enrolled member, to the effect that he order his life wisely and piously, and fulfill all the obligations, both those laid down in general for all tertiaries, as well as the special ones for members who desire to enjoy the so-called "Sabbatine" privileges (concerning which he should fully enlighten the party); moreover, that in future he be assiduous in honoring the Virgin Mother of God with devotions of a special nature, and dedicate himself in filial and sincere affection to her whom he regards in a special way as a most tender Mother.

R. Amen.

Then the Hymn Veni Creator, Spiritus is said, followed by the versicle.

Hymn

Creator-spirit, all-divine,

Come, visit every soul of Thine,

And fill with Thy celestial flame

The hearts which Thou Thyself didst flame.

O gift of God, Thine is the sweet

Consoling name of Paraclete-

And spring of life and fire and love

And unction flowing from above.

The mystic sevenfold gifts are Thine,

Finger of God's right hand divine;

The Father's promise sent to teach

The tongue a rich and heavenly speech.

Kindle with fire brought from above

Each sense, and fill our hearts with love;

And grant our flesh, so weak and frail,

The strength of Thine which cannot fail.

Drive far away our deadly foe,

And grant us Thy true peace to know;

So we, led by Thy guidance still,

May safely pass through every ill.

To us, through Thee, the grace be shown

To know the Father and the Son;
And Spirit of Them both, may we
Forever rest our faith in Thee.
To Sire and Son be praises meet,
And to the Holy Paraclete;
And may Christ send us from above
That Holy Spirit's gift of love. Amen.

V. Send forth your Spirit and all things shall be recreated.

R. And you shall renew the face of the earth.

V. Save your servant.

R. Who trusts in you, my God.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

BLESSING OF THE SICK WITH RELIC OF TRUE CROSS

OR THE SIGN OF ST. MAURUS THE ABBOT

Formerly reserved to the Order of St. Benedict

Before the ceremony a relic of the true cross of our Lord is exposed, with at least two lighted candles beside it. Then the sick person is encouraged to make an act of contrition, as well as an act of firm faith that, by the merits and prayers of St. Benedict and St. Maurus, he will be restored to health, God willing. Three Our Fathers, Hail Marys and Glory be to the Father are said in honor of the Most Holy Trinity. Following this the priest, vested in surplice and red stole, holds the relic in his right hand before the sick person, and says:

V. Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honor, and power, and strength to our God forever and ever. R. Amen.

V. My foot is set on the right path.

R. I will praise you, Lord, in the assemblies.

Invocation

As I call on the holy name of the Lord, may you be restored to desired good health by that faith with which St. Maurus healed the sick with the following words; and I, unworthy sinner though I am, in similar faith now humbly say this prayer over you:

In the name of the all holy and undivided Trinity, and aided by the merits of our holy father, St. Benedict, I say to you: "Arise, N., fully restored to health"; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, + and of the Holy Spirit. R. Amen.

Ant. Surely He has born our grief and endured our sorrows; and by His stripes we are healed.

V. He who pardons man's iniquities.

R. May He heal your infirmities.

V. Lord, heed my prayer.

R. And let my cry be heard by you.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Prayer

God, Creator of all things, who ordained that your only-begotten Son, by the co-operation of the Holy Spirit, take flesh in the womb of the Virgin Mary, in order to redeem the human race; and who in redeeming us were pleased to heal the wounds and infirmities of our souls by the holy and glorious wood of the life-bearing cross; grant that your servant, N., (grant that your servants N.) be restored to former good health by the power of this same life-giving sign; through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Let us pray.

Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, who gave to St. Benedict, my master, the power to obtain from you whatever he would ask in your name; be pleased to expel by his prayers all suffering from this servant of yours, so that restored to health he (she) may offer thanksgiving to your holy name. We ask this of you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit forever and ever. R. Amen.

The Sign

By the intercession of the immaculate Mother of God, ever a Virgin, and by the prayers of St. Benedict and St. Maurus, may the power of God + the Father, the wisdom of God + the Son, and the might of the Holy + Spirit, deliver you from this infirmity. R. Amen.

May God's will be done in all things, and so may it be done in your case, just as you seek and desire only the praise and honor of the all holy cross of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Lastly he blesses the sick person with the relic of the holy cross, saying:

May the blessing of almighty God, Father, Son, + and Holy Spirit, come upon you and remain with you forever. R. Amen.

He then presents the relic to be kissed. This "sign" may be repeated three times if necessary, either the same day or on different days, as the case requires. Also, if desired, three votive Masses may be celebrated one of the Passion, one of St. Maurus the Abbot, and one of the dead. Otherwise the sick person will recite the rosary of the blessed Virgin Mary, if he is able, or will have it recited for him, distributed in three parts and for the aforementioned intention.

BLESSING OF WATER FOR THE SICK IN HONOR OF ST. VINCENT FERRER

R. Both now and forevermore.

V. Lord, heed my prayer.

R. And let my cry be heard by you.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Prayer

We humbly appeal to your majesty, O Lord, asking that as you once blessed the rock in the desert, letting a copious flow of water come forth when Moses struck it twice with his rod, thus typifying by this double stroke the mystery of your passion and the two wooden beams of the cross; so now you may again hallow with your bounteous blessing + this water by the mystery of the same holy cross. And let every sick person who drinks of it or is sprinkled with it forthwith experience the healing effect of your blessing; through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

I bless this water in the name of God + the Father almighty, who created this pleasing element for man's use ennobling it by His wondrous power to wash away the stains of both body and soul; to be drink for the thirsty; cool refreshment for those suffering from the heat; a means of travel for seafarers; and who in water and by the water in the universal deluge--when the cataracts of heaven poured down rain for forty days and forty nights, yet sparing the lives of the eight people in the Ark--prefigured the sacrament of the New Covenant. May He now bless + and hallow + this water, so that by the invocation of His holy name and that of St. Vincent, it may heal the sick, strengthen the infirm, cheer the downcast, purify the unclean, and give full well-being to those who seek it; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, + and of the Holy Spirit. R. Amen.
